Legend

1. Double track railroad line to Katowice via Zabierzow and to Tarnow via Bochnia and Brzesko.
2. Main Krakow railroad station.
3. Single track railroad line to Mogila.
4. Krakow-Plaszow way station. Plaszow is about one kilometer east of the main Krakow station.
5. A road paved with basalt cobblestones and planted with birch and linden trees, leading to Mogila.
6. A new road running from Czyzyny to Binczyce village.
7. Large barracks located about one kilometer from the plaszow station, on the right side of the road marked No. 5, where KBW troops were billeted in 1950.
8. Defense zone: This zone consists of a hill planted with trees. There are two roads going up the hill. Each road is about 12 meters wide. Vertical brick walls run alongside these roads. The walls, about one meter thick, are built in a zigzag pattern. There are two wide doors in these walls, opening into pillboxes. Each pillbox is about 40 meters long and about four meters high. They are used to store building material, wood, oil, and gasoline.
9. A Polish military airfield. The field is bordered by a road, by the above mentioned defense zone, and the northern border of Binczyce village. The dimensions of the field are about 2 1/2 kilometers by 800-900 meters. The entrance is about 300 meters from the road marked No. 6. There are one and two story buildings, among them a few fairly large hangars. Single and twin-motor aircraft are parked on the airfield. <sup>1</sup>
10. A tobacco and cigarette factory consisting of two buildings. They have two stories, and are about 50 by 20 meters in size.
11. Several blocks of houses belonging to Mogila village.
12. Several blocks of buildings under construction for workers building the Nowa Ruta blast furnace.
13. A cemetery planted with trees.
14. A moor.

1. Comment.
the civilian airfield at Czyzyny was being converted into a military airfield and construction of several buildings and runways had already been started.
